

Dedication	iii
Preface to Third Edition	v
Preface to First Edition	vii
Table of Cases	xiii
Chapter 1 — Basic Concepts	1
1. Introduction	1
2. The Adversary System	2
3. Exclusion of Evidence	4
4. Relevance, Materiality and Discretion to Exclude	5
(a) Materiality	5
(b) Relevance	6
(c) Direct and Circumstantial Evidence and Relevance	8
(d) Prejudicial Evidence and Judicial Discretion	10
(e) Multiple Relevance	12
(f) Conditional Relevance	13
(g) Specific Relevance Rules	13
(i) Post-offence Conduct	13
(ii) Subsequent Repairs and Settlement Offers	14
(iii) Liability Insurance	15
(iv) Judicial Findings	15
5. Character Evidence, Relevance and Judicial Discretion	16
(a) Habit	16
(b) Character Evidence Generally	17
(i) Character Evidence in Civil Cases	19
(ii) Character of the Accused	19
(iii) Manner of Proving Character of the Accused	20
(c) Similar Fact Evidence	20
(i) The Test in Criminal Cases	21
(ii) Similar Fact Evidence in Civil Cases	23
(d) Character of the Victim	24
(i) The Potential for Prejudice	25
(ii) Character of the Victim in Sexual Assault Cases ...	25

Chapter 2 — Manner of Proof	29
1. Introduction	29
2. The Persuasive and the Evidential Burden of Proof	29
3. Facts Peculiarly Within the Knowledge of the Accused	32
4. The Measure of the Burden of Persuasion	33
5. Circumstantial Cases and the Rule in Hodge’s Case	36
6. The Measure of the Evidential Burden	37
7. Presumptions	39
(a) False Presumptions	39
(b) True Presumptions	40
(c) Presumptions and The Charter	42
8. Judicial Notice	45
(a) Noticing Facts	45
(b) Noticing Facts the Judge Personally Knows	48
(c) Noticing Law	49
9. Real Evidence	49
(a) Authentication	49
(b) Photographs	50
(c) Documents	51
(d) The Best Evidence Rule	51
(e) Views	52
Chapter 3 — Witnesses	55
1. Introduction	55
2. Organic Incapacity and the Oath	56
(a) Mental Incapacity	56
(b) Immaturity	58
(c) The Oath and the Affirmation	62
3. Emotional Incapacity	63
4. Manner of Questioning	65
(a) Leading Questions	66
(b) Refreshing Memory	67
(c) Examination by the Court and the Order of Witnesses ..	69
5. Impeachment of a Witness	70
(a) Prior Inconsistent Statements	70
(b) Collateral Facts Limitation	71
(c) Procedure for Using Prior Inconsistent Statements	72
(d) Impeaching One’s Own Witness	73
(e) Bias	75
(f) Character of the Witness	76
(g) Accused as Witness	77

(h) Primary Witness in Prosecutions of Sexual Assault	78
(i) Defects in the Capacity of a Witness	79
6. Supporting a Witness's Credibility	79
(a) To Rebut the Allegation of Recent Fabrication	80
(b) Prior Identification	80
(c) Recent Complaint	81
(d) Narrative	82
(e) Expert Evidence	82
7. Corroboration	83
(a) Perjury	83
(b) Treason	84
(c) Accomplices and Other Unsavoury Witnesses	84
(d) Primary Witnesses in Sexual Assault Cases	85
(e) Unsworn Evidence of Children	86
Chapter 4 — Hearsay	87
1. Introduction	87
2. Identifying Hearsay	88
3. Implied Assertions	93
4. The Principled Approach to Hearsay	94
(a) Rules and Principles	95
(b) The Governing Framework of Admissibility	95
(c) Necessity and Reliability	97
(d) Recanted Statements of a Witness	98
5. Exceptions to the Hearsay Rule	100
(a) Admissions	100
(i) Some Specific Rules on Admissions	101
(ii) Statements Adopted by a Party's Conduct	102
(iii) Statements Authorized by a Party	102
(iv) Co-conspirator Statements	103
(b) Exceptions Where Declarant Is Unavailable	104
(i) Declarations Against Interest	104
(ii) Dying Declarations	106
(iii) Business Records and Other Declarations in the Course of Duty	106
(iv) Former Testimony	109
(c) Exceptions Not Dependent on the Availability of Declarant	111
(i) Declarations as to Physical Sensation	111
(ii) Declarations as to Mental or Emotional State	111
(iii) Spontaneous Statements	113
(iv) Statements of Present Sense Impression	114

(d) Exceptions Where Declarant is Available	115
(i) Previous Identification	115
(ii) Past Recollection Recorded	115
Chapter 5 — Opinion and Expert Evidence	117
1. The Opinion Rule and Lay Witnesses	117
2. Expert Witnesses	119
(a) Admissibility of Expert Testimony	120
(i) Novel Science	121
(ii) Expert Evidence on Human Behaviour	123
(iii) Necessity and the Availability of Jury Instructions	124
(b) The Ultimate Issue Rule	125
(c) Hypothetical Questions	126
(d) Expert Opinion Based on Hearsay	127
(e) Number of Experts	128
3. Exchange of Expert Reports	129
Chapter 6 — Excluding Evidence for Purposes Other Than Truth	131
1. Introduction	131
2. Privileged Communications	131
(a) Solicitor-Client	131
(b) Litigation Privilege	135
(c) Marital Privilege	136
(d) Privilege for Without Prejudice Communications	138
(e) Crown Privilege—Public Interest Immunity	139
(f) Identity of Informers	141
(g) Other Privileged Communications	142
3. Disclosure of Third Party Records	143
4. Privilege Against Self-Incrimination	145
(a) Non-Compellability of Accused	145
(b) Use Immunity	146
(c) Other Protections Related to Compelled Testimony	147
(d) Inferences from the Accused’s Silence At Trial	148
(e) Comments on the Accused’s Failure to Testify	149
(f) The Creation of a Right to Silence in Canada	151
(g) A Principle Versus a Privilege	152
5. Confessions	153
6. Exclusion of Improperly Obtained Evidence	157
Index	161